

Where history is hands-on.

Vermilionville Membership Form

The Vermilionville Living History Museum and Folklife Park relies on annual memberships and donations to fund its ongoing efforts to offer a living museum where visitors can see what life was like for the Acadians, Creoles, and Native Americans in the Attakapas region from 1765 to 1890. Your support helps to perpetuate our cultures and history, keep the museum open for visitors of all ages year-round, preserve the more than 3,000 artifacts on-site, and so much more.
