

Where history is hands-on.

Member Application

The Vermilionville Living History Museum and Folklife Park relies on annual memberships and donations to fund its ongoing efforts to offer a living museum where visitors can see what life was like for the Acadian, Creole and Native American cultures from 1765 to 1890. Your support helps in the ongoing effort to preserve our history, keeps the museum open for visitors of all ages year round, helps preserve the more than 2,000 artifacts on-site, and so much more.
